

Name: _____

Date: _____

Pre-Trail Tour

Instructions: Fill in the blank with the vocabulary words from the word bank below.

Carnivore	Omnivore	Herbivore	Prey
Predator	Pride	Arboreal	Litter
Cubs	Subspecies	Species	Extinct
Endangered	Conservation	Solitary

1. A cheetah can give birth to a _____ of up to 8 _____.
2. An animal that eats meat is called a _____. An animal that eats plants is called an _____. An animal that eats both plants and meat is called an _____.
3. Most cat species are _____, which means they like to live alone. Lions are the only social species of cat and will live in a _____.
4. Leopards will use their long tails for balance and are considered to be an _____ cat, meaning they spend a lot of time in trees.
5. When there are very few individuals left in the wild, an animal is listed as _____. When an animal goes _____, that means there are no more of them in the world.
6. Cat Haven works with many _____ groups that help protect cats in the wild.
7. There are 37 different _____ of big and small cats.
8. There are 5 different _____ of tigers.
9. When one animal hunts another type of animal it is called a _____. The animal that is being hunted is called _____.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Post-Trail Tour

Instructions: Choose a species that lives at Cat Haven and write a research paper about that cat. Fill in the outline and use it as your guide for your paper.

Outline:

What species of cat are you studying? _____

Can you describe what this species looks like? _____

Where geographically is this species of cat found? _____

What type of habitat(s) does this cat live in? _____

What type of prey does it hunt? _____

What are some of the threats this cat faces in the wild? _____

How can we protect this species? _____

Use the space on the back to write your research paper.

